

Memphis

Macomb County, Michigan

The City of Memphis is located in the northeast corner of Macomb County on the banks of the Belle River. Sited equally in Macomb and St. Clair Counties, Memphis is still a quiet agricultural based community.

Over the past two decades the City's population has fluctuated only slightly. The Macomb County portion had a 2000 population of 807 residents. Commercial activity is concentrated along a traditional main street – Memphis Ridge Road. Situated far north of the urbanized fringe, Memphis is very likely to retain its quiet atmosphere and small town American character.

Memphis Ridge Road (M-19) is the main north-south route which links Memphis to the City of Richmond and Gratiot Avenue to the south and I-69 to the north. Bordman Road, which forms the northern boundary of the County, bisects Memphis providing the main east-west route through the City.
